LIFE AT AUGUSTUS GRANGE

The county town of Pembrokeshire, Haverfordwest is a location full of charm and character. The Western Cleddau runs through the centre of town, dissecting the main streets full of shops and restaurants, and the iconic castle towers above it, dominating the skyline.

Haverfordwest Town Museum, located in the castle's grounds, is a hub for finding out more about the rich heritage. Here you'll find artefacts from not only the castle, but the whole town, along with a wide collection of works from local artists.

A weekly farmers market can be found at Riverside Shopping, where you'll be able to take your pick from a whole host of home-produced products. PLACES TO SEE, LOCATIONS TO EXPLORE

The county of Pembrokeshire is the perfect location for exploring. From the glorious bays found at the feet of the imposing cliffs, to the picturesque views you'll meet when heading along the 186-mile coastal path, there's an abundance of places to discover and fall in love with.

Acres of golden sands are within reach for you to admire and enjoy, with the Blue Flag beaches at Broad Haven and Newgale less than 10 miles away. Another must-see location is the cathedral-topped St. Davids, where Wales' patron saint was born over 1,500 years ago. This may be Britain's smallest city, but provides some of the most magnificent coastal scenery in the county. Just along the road from St. Davids is Whitesands Bay, renowned as being one of the best tourist beaches in the world. In the opposite direction is Solva, home to a charming high street and bustling quay.

The Blue Lagoon, a former slate quarry, sits within the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park in Abereiddy. As well as being popular with adventure groups who jump from the platforms into the blue-green water below, it's also the ideal setting for you to enjoy a spot of kayaking. Heading out onto the water you can take the opportunity to explore the many coves, caves and secluded beaches that can be found in this spectacular bay.

HOW TO PURCHASE

Buying a new Lovell home couldn't be easier. Follow our guide and you'll be home in no time!

REGISTER

Register your interest with Lovell and we will put you in touch with an Independent Financial Advisor for free advice. You can seek your own advice but you will also need to be qualified by Lovell.

CHOOSE AND RESERVE

Secure your new home with a reservation fee which goes towards the total purchase price. It's then reserved in your name while the legal processes are completed.

KEEPING THINGS MOVING

Pass our Sales Executive your solicitor's details so that we can send on the contract documents. Arrange your mortgage if you need one. You can do this yourself or we can put you in touch with an Independent Financial Advisor to help.

EXCHANGING CONTRACTS

Once you've had your formal mortgage offer, your solicitor will inform you when it's time to exchange contracts. You will now pay your deposit, which will be sent to us with your signed contract.

NEARLY THERE

Under the terms of the contract we need to allow time for financial completion. Once this has happened, we will ask your solicitor to request funds and pay the balance of the purchase price. The deeds are transferred into your name and you now own your new Lovell home!

MOVING IN

We will arrange for your meters to be read on the day of legal completion. Our Sales Executive will hand you the keys and a handover certificate.
